Family Input for 2022-23 Placement

It is the time of year when are working hard to finish this year strong, and we start thinking about next year. The adults are beginning the long process of making class lists for next year. One piece of the process involves getting input from our families. A paper copy was sent home last week. You can also access this form online. Please send in/complete your form by Monday if you have not already!
