Friday, November 22, 2024 Sara Raabe, JFK Principal

No School Next Week

There is no School Next week. We look forward to welcoming students back on Monday, December 2, 2024.

Fall Conferences

Thursday and Friday of this week were Parent Teacher Conferences. As a school, we look forward to the opportunity to talk to families, share your students success with you, and collaborate on how to support your student to continue to make gains.

If you were unable to attend your student's Parent Teacher Conference, please reach out to the classroom teacher to reschedule. The collaboration between home and school is vital for our student's success!

Bus Schedule

The busses run on a schedule each day, with the understanding that the bus has a 10 minute window on either side of the published time. It is important that the students are at the bus stop 10 minutes before the published time.
